

Help me bring acupuncture to Guatemala!

Volunteer Mission August 2013

---

We see many children who suffer from malnutrition, parasites, dermatitis and emotional disorders. In this photo this child was originally lethargic and listless, and her mother told us she refused to eat. As you can see, after a simple treatment she was well enough to sit up and wave to the camera

Your Donations Truly Do Help!

Many patients complain of "chest pain" which our translator told us means sadness. Many suffer from PTSD, insomnia and other symptoms related to experiencing the civil war.

Paypal donations accepted at: www.mettaworksacupuncture.com

Thank you to all who have supported me and continue to support me. It is enormously rewarding and humbling to volunteer and be an ambassador of Chinese medicine. The villagers are so grateful and sincerely pleased that we are there to help them. Our presence really makes a difference in their lives.

**Thank you****

Ayoung Kim, MS, L.Ac., is an acupuncturist in practice in San Francisco. She also teaches qigong at the Creative Canopy SF.